Perfectly situated on Marbella's stunning beach front – and just a five minute stroll from the buzzing centre of Old Town Marbella and its marina – the stylish, adults only Amàre Marbella Beach Hotel has now announced the launch of its new 16km Cycling Safari, exclusively created for the hotel's many adventure seeking guests.

Exploring some of Marbella's many hot spots, the route takes guests on a stunning coastal journey, allowing for regular stops along the way to soak up the sun, devour the local food and absorb the Marbella culture.

For lunch, stop off at the new beachside restaurant, Soleo Marbella to feast on an abundance of fresh seafood. Satisfy your sweet tooth by cooling off in the heat, with a dessert stop at the gelateria, La Valenciana to savour the authentic and homemade Spanish helado, or fuel your bike ride at Da Giulia for a caffeine fix.

Following the pit stop, take a step back in time and discover Marbella's rich history, with guests encouraged to stop by the city's most famous sculpture and take a photo with Venus, before cycling to the famous Villa Romana. This ancient site holds unique roman mosaics which have been preserved for thousands of years, and it is the perfect place to engage in the town's rich history and culture.

In keeping with Marbella's glamorous vibe, guests can then wander round the ultra-fashionable Puerto Banus Marina, possibly spotting a celebrity or two whilst admiring the luxury yachts and fast cars, an diving in to the many boutique designer stores on offer. After an afternoon of cycling escapades, finish the day with a drink at Victor's Beach, this hip beachside bar offers mellow vibes and the best cocktails by the sea.

The following day, rest your weary legs by relaxing on the private beach or by the hotel pool. Indulge in delicious tapas and Mediterranean cuisine at the literal push of a 'call button,' ensuring that every whim is catered for, at any time of the day.

Nightly rates start from £200 in an 'I Was Here' room on a bed and breakfast basis including complimentary daily sunbeds, use of the Technogym and WiFi. Bicycle rental costs €15per day, including bike lock.
