

Amare Beach Hotel Marbella Theme Nights

Amare Beach Hotel Marbella guests are in for an authentic Latin treat this summer with the arrival of Beach Flamenco and Cuban theme nights.

Each week, audiences will be treated to an evening full of unique surroundings, unforgettable experiences and magnificent live shows.

Every Friday, Amare Beach Hotel Marbella will alternate between Beach Flamenco and Cuban nights.

Starting on 13th July with a Flamenco show, guests of the Amare Beach Hotel Marbella are delighted with an enchanting live show and dinner.

Each night will include fantastic dancers and performers, leaving guests raring to join in.

Tickets cost £40 and include the show and dinner.

It's not just the theme nights adding a Latin flare to the Amare Beach Hotel Marbella, Hayaca restaurant will be serving up Latin-inspired delights all summer long.

After all that dancing, guests of the Amare Beach Hotel Marbella can head on up to the only rooftop bar in Marbella with 360-degree views.

Admire the stunning landscapes, with views reaching as far as Morocco on a clear day, with a tropical cocktail in hand.

The house-cocktail at Amare Beach Hotel Marbella, the Amàre Mexican Mojito, is the perfect refreshing drink, comprising tequila, mint, cinnamon, lime juice and soda.

As the sun sets into the Mediterranean, there really is no better way to end your night.

Following the successful opening of Marbella's first Latin American dining concept, Hayaca, the Amare Beach Hotel Marbella has transformed into a haven for Latin lovers.

From 15th June to 15th September Michelin-starred chef Mauricio Giovanini is serving up delectable fusion flavours from Cuba to Brazil.

Kick off your gastronomic journey at the Amare Beach Hotel Marbella through his original and delicious cuisine that uses local products, modern versions of classic dishes and recipes with their own identity.

Why not try sea bass ceviche or the freshest catch of the day marinated in Latin spices and served with coconut rice.

The décor and vibe are unmistakable with colourful long benches, vibrant cushions and table linen, tropical greenery and cacti, wicker baskets and chairs.

Guests of the Amare Beach Hotel Marbella can relax while swaying to the sound of the best Latin beats and enjoy the picture postcard views.

Reached in just two and a half hours from the UK with daily flights to Malaga Airport and a 45-minute car transfer to the hotel, and with daytime temperatures exceeding 20°C from April to October, Amare Beach Hotel Marbella is your perfect short haul break for guaranteed sun, sea and style in 2018.