Grown-up luxe comes to Marbella and Ibiza at adults-only Amàre Hotels

BY JACOB SAMUEL
JANUARY 12, 2021

Amàre Marbella will re-open on 26th March and Amàre Ibiza will be opening for its first full season on the 30th of April.

Fashion-forward, sleek and chic, Amàre Hotels epitomize distinctive design, stylish sophistication, and fun; these are grown-up getaways that are good for the soul.

By day, guests are invited to soak up the Amàre rhythm and relax on a lounge or Bali bed at the Amàre Beach and Pool. Here sunbathing and all-day dining goes hand in hand, meaning there's no need to ever venture too far. And while the sea breeze and sun caresses, DJ mixes and live performances play on in the background and at the push of a button, ice-cold cocktails and mocktails are served on demand.

As night falls – the view from the top comes alive. In Ibiza, the Belvue Rooftop is one of the best spots to catch the famous Ibizan sunset with its 360° views. Designed to seduce the palate is the impressive line up of dining and lounge options; including the Michelin Star Messina Restaurant which happens to be one of the best in Marbella, and Hayaca Terrace inviting guests to try an impressive selection of Latin American flavors created by Mauricio Giovanini, masterfully paired with creative cocktails by one of Spain's best bartenders, Diego Cabrera.

The hotels together combine the two concepts that make up the Amàre name – meaning love (Amor) and sea (Mar). This concept inspires each area of Amàre Hotels, from the eclectic design and architecture to the tempting cuisine and exclusive Amàre playlists; and its exclusive beach club vibes take guests effortlessly taken from sunrise to sunset.

A blank canvas for electrifying creativity, both Amàre Hotels showcase the work of local contemporary artists from the worlds of photography, fashion, design, sculpture, and art. Bringing the hotels to life this year will be an exciting schedule of events throughout 2020, including DJ sets, pool parties, fashion shows, and exhibitions, starting with a series of live music performances at Amàre Marbella.
